FATRO, still young but with 70 years of experience

Today, more than ever, keeping resolutely to the same road signposted by the founder of FATRO, Dr. Corrado Zaini, with the same entrepreneurial energy and enthusiasm and with the same desire to grow and become great together, we develop and produce drugs and vaccines with full regard for the environment and the need to safeguard animal health and, with it, your health.

Of these 70 years, the last 30 have been ticked off, day by day, on our FATRO calendar, a much-appreciated and valued must-have, which has always been with us and, we trust, will still be with us for many years to come, so we can become still greater together.
